VERMOUTH

BORDIGA, Turin, Italy 15

Squirt of soda/straight/tonic zing of zest. Refreshing!

SPRITZ 20

BIANCO is based on Piedmont white wines, inc. moscato and infused with dozens different botanicals from the nearby Occitan Alps.

EXTRA DRY is a more restrained version, mainly infused with camomile and juniper. a more serious vermouth.

FUTURE PERFECT Bitter Moon, Hobart/Lutruwita, Tasmania

Pinot and chardy pressings, medium sweetness. Botanicals native and not, some homegrown at FP. Sip, swirl it. Spritz it.

SPRITZ 18

SHERRY

LUSTAU Jerez, Spain Stylish way to kiss your palate awake! 16

The 'Sherry Triangle' of Andalusia, southern Spain, where local (and rare) air creates a waxy, foamy live flor, whose thickness dictates the oxidative nature of the short, luxurious and famous aperitif.

Each of these three LUSTAU (Jerez OG) represent the different styles, flavours from the tripex of the 'Sherry Triangle'.

FINO Jerez - Intense golden color with amber reflections. Pungent nose. Yeast, white bread, chalk and butter nuances.

FINO El Puerto de Santa Maria - dry, but dry-rich, broad on palate. Almonds. Bright golden.

MANZANILLA Sanlúcar de Barrameda - dry, bright, fresh; notes of seaspray.

WINE COCKTAILS

Yalumba Wines have since 1849 been at the forefront of presenting Australia, and Australian wines, to the world, and (six generations on!) continue to produce them.

The name Lamaro's Hotel remains synonymous with family and family values that, like Yalumba, go hand-in-hand with hard work and integrity.

We are honoured to present a page of all things Yalumba: Australia's oldest family-owned winery - innovators of sustainable viticulture and winemaking processes that continue to today.

PINOT GRIS/GRIGIO

'Gris' - Fr: Grey; 'Grigio' - It: Grey. Though not always the case, p.gris is known for its refreshing citrus, whilst p.grigio takes on honeyed notes - honeysuckle, pear - finishing with a saline-line mineralness.

CHARDONNAY

VICTORIA

The Yarra Valley has been the calling card of Australia's international chardonnay reputation; it's cool-climate and world-class names making wine closely aligned with Burgundy. Yarra Yering, established in 1969, is the jewel-in-the-crown; producing earthshakingly good wine.

The famous 'maritime climate' brings to Mornington Peninsula wines refined, nuanced wines from 'down the hill' - Dromana, Merricks, Moorooduc (local vintners divide the region in half) where sandy-soils match the cooler temperatures of being closer to Westernport and Port Phillip bays. The warmer, sunnier 'up the hill' climes of Main Ridge, Red Hill make for chardy that's fuller and peachier with more power in the flavour.

PINOT NOIR

AUSTRALIA

VICTORIA

The Yarra Valley is Australia's premier cool-climate p. noir region, with Yarra Yering an international standout. Rule of thumb (i): Yarra Valley - light-to-medium bodied, strawberry and spice. The cultivar of Australian p. noir culture, headed finely by the masterful Yarra Yering, wines of which are luxury to drink.

Mornington Peninsula - rule of thumb (ii): this very polished region of maritime climate splits itself into 'up-the-hill' and 'down-the-hill' sub-regions: dark and brooding p.noir, thick with whispers of soy sauce and asian spice made a few miles up only from some pretty, ethereal pinots with clever cherry and a sexy salinity.

NUITS-SAINT-GEORGES

Nuits-Saint-Georges, gives its name to the Côte de Nuits; wines' muscular and vigorous, chewy and full-bodied, its structure is both well-built and well-balanced and it is long in the mouth, its normal partners would be a heavenly match with any full-flavoured meat!

GAMAY

Gamay has long suffered from bad marketing but is a pretty, purple-berried grape that makes wine with strong purple fruit flavours, anise, violet, and musk.

Wine wiz tricks often tames the high acids, making a type of wine to be drunk whilst young and fresh. But the same time, Gamay is now treated as a serious wine variety.

FRANCE

FLEURIE wines are some of the most sought-after, and often express a softer, more feminine style, thus explaining the subregions nickname, "The Queen of Beaujolais". Jane Eyre is a well-regarded and multi-awarded Australian winemaker making wine in both Beaujolais and Burgundy.

BAROLO

The 'king' of Italian wine, Barolo is a delicious wine rich in tannin, aged for 5 years (5yrs +, Riserva), and, by law, made from fruit grown on hillsides and not on valley floors, as the local fogs add to nebbiolo ripening magic.

SYRAH

Syrah is the variety's original name in the nrth Rhone, it's French birthplace, where it is sometimes blended with the white Rhone grapes). The difference between 'Syrah' and 'Shiraz', is that Syrah is generally lighter in body and alcohol, and has more polished tannins than the fuller, richer Shirazes...

NORTHERN RHONE

Mistral wind that cools the North. Rhone, where the only red grape allowed, Syrah, flourishes, as does the superb blending whites that (when allowed) add delicacy and perfume to syrah wines. Subregions enjoy different blending rules:

CABERNET SAUVIGNON

From its regality of Bordeaux, Cabernet Sauvignon is, truly, the king of wines. Thanks to a major river system that famously splits Bordeaux into two sub-regions, and sub regional styles (Left Bank - Cabernet-based wine; and Right Bank, where merlot is either bottled as a single variety or as its dominant grape). Classified by wine law in 1855, somehow it has fallen out of favour in the last 50 years (much to do with the popular advent of chardonnay, pinot and shiraz). But due as much to its sexy new shorthand (BDX) as well as cycles of style, BDX will soon be back in the dress circle...

CABERNET FRANC

Lighter than its 'son', c. sauvignon, c. franc is often blended with it and melot, in Bordeaux, but c. franc makes a fine single varietal in Chinon, on the Loire River: bright raspberry aroma and peppery, violet-like flavours.
