Pinot and chardy pressings, medium sweetness. Botanicals native and not, some homegrown at FP. Sip, swirl it. Spritz it.

SHERRY

SPAIN

LUSTAU, Jerez

14

The 'Sherry Triangle' of Andalusia, southern Spain, where local (and rare) air creates a waxy, foamy live flor, whose FINO Jerez - Intense golden colour with amber reflections. Pungent nose. Yeast, white bread, chalk and butter nuances.

FINO El Puerto de Santa Maria - dry, but dry-rich, broad on palate. Almonds. Bright golden.

MANZANILLA Sanlúcar de Barrameda - dry, bright, fresh; notes of seaspray.

MORNINGTON PENINSULA

Mornington Peninsula - region of maritime climate that splits itself into 'up-the-hill' and 'down-the-hill' sub-regions. Soil has a bit to say here with chardy: up-the-hill (red clay soil) chardonnay is floral, with brighter acid than the down-the-hill wines: structured, full-bodied, grown from sedimentary brown loam.

CURLEWIS WINERY was established by self-taught winemaker who retired in '11, selling the business; which continues to make wines using Old World techniques. Geelong stretches itself out into the idyllic Bellarine. Things go slow down there and it shows in the wines here, a stunning selection of back vintage Curlewis Reserve Pinot Noir.

TASMANIA

"Pinot Noir has always underpinned my enthusiasm for wine. It is the perfect example of what wine should be: mysterious, challenging, a complete reflection of its environment and the most satisfying when you get it right."
- Peter Caldwell (Vigneron, Dalrymple Vineyards)

PIPER'S RIVER

Kutch Vineyard

Kutch Wines, since 2005, has a singular focus on Pinot Noir from cool climate sites on the Sonoma coast and Santa Cruz mountains.

2021	Falstaff Vineyard	Sonoma Coast	215
------	-------------------	--------------	-----

One of the coldest and most marginal sites, Falstaff Vineyard lies close to the Pacific, with tiny clusters that produce intensely concentrated fruit. This Pinot Noir site often yields less than one ton per acre.

2021	McDougall Ranch	Sonoma Coast	220
------	-----------------	--------------	-----

Perched high above the fog at roughly 1010 feet and approximately 3.5 miles inland from the Pacific, McDougall Ranch produces Pinot Noir with remarkable structure, aromatic intensity, and depth of flavour.

2021	Mindego Ridge Vineyard	Santa Cruz Mountains	235
------	------------------------	----------------------	-----

Planted on a shale-laced mountain, Mindego Ridge Vineyard is a 10-acre vineyard located in the Santa Cruz Mountains, 40 miles south of San Francisco and 9 miles east of the Pacific Ocean.

BLAUFRANKISCH

GAMAY

Gamay has long suffered from bad marketing but is a pretty, purple-berried grape that makes wine with strong purple fruit flavours, anise, violet, and musk.

Wine tricks tame the high acids, making a type of wine to be drunk whilst young and fresh. But at the same time, Gamay is now treated as a serious wine variety.

FRANCE

FLEURIE wines are some of the most sought-after, and often express a softer, more feminine style, thus explaining the subregions nickname, "The Queen of Beaujolais". Jane Eyre is a well-regarded and multi-awarded Australian winemaker making wine in both Beaujolais and Burgundy.

GRENACHE

The driver in famous Sth Rhone styles with minor percentages of shiraz and 'the dog strangler' mourvedre: hence 'GSM'. Would be wrong of us not to shine a torch on 2020 Chateau de Beaucastel, in a nod to our friend and wine-hero Paul Bryant (1976-2022).

MCLAREN VALE

Some of Australia's most beguiling wines come out of the equally-beguiling McLaren Vale, which has, it seems, since the 1860s, become an overnight sensation: recognised by its exceptional soils and definitive microclimates, where the Grenache grape particularly flourishes.

With careful handling by contemporary masters such as Renae Hirsch (Willunga 100), Emma Wood (Wirra Wirra), David Le Mire (MMAD), and the late Peter Fraser (Yangarra) - whose 2023 High Sands is, in our book, one of the greatest Australian wines of the modern age - Australia's ugly duckling grape has transformed into a magnificent swan.

If wines are places, and they enjoy being found, McLaren Vale is the place to find Grenache.

BAROLO

The 'king' of Italian wine, Barolo is a delicious wine rich in tannin, aged for 5 years (5yrs +, Riserva), and, by law, made from fruit grown on hillsides and not on valley floors, as the local fogs add to nebbiolo ripening magic.

SYRAH

Syrah is the variety's original name in the nrth Rhone, it's French birthplace, where it is sometimes blended with the white Rhone grapes). The difference between 'Syrah' and 'Shiraz', is that Syrah is generally lighter in body and alcohol, and has more polished tannins than the fuller, richer Shirazes...

NORTHERN RHONE

Mistral wind that cools the North. Rhone, where the only red grape allowed, Syrah, flourishes, as does the superb blending whites that (when allowed) add delicacy and perfume to syrah wines. Subregions enjoy different blending rules:

CORNAS

Cornas is allowed only to use syrah in their wine.

CABERNET SAUVIGNON

From its regality of Bordeaux, Cabernet Sauvignon is, truly, the king of wines. Thanks to a major river system that famously splits Bordeaux into two sub-regions, and sub regional styles (Left Bank - Cabernet-based wine; and Right Bank, where merlot is either bottled as a single variety or as its dominant grape). Classified by wine law in 1855, somehow it has fallen out of favour in the last 50 years (much to do with the popular advent of chardonnay, pinot and shiraz). But due as much to its sexy new shorthand (BDX) as well as cycles of style, BDX will soon be back in the dress circle...

2000	Chateau Musar Cabernet Sauvignon/Cinsault/Carignan	Bekaa Valley	435

CABERNET FRANC

Lighter than its 'son', c. sauvignon, c. franc is often blended with it and melot, in Bordeaux, but c. franc makes a fine single varietal in Chinon, on the Loire River: bright raspberry aroma and peppery, violet-like flavours.
